REPUBLICANS CLAIMS MADE BY THE DEMOCRATS.

Reports from All Parts of the State Indicating a Majority for Harrison. Rural Accession of 30,000—Gen. Palmer Returns to San Antonio Enthusiastic—An Unusual Republican Majority Reported in Lake—General Political Notes and Gossip.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—[Special.]—Letters received by Senator Farwell, Representative Cannon, and other Illinois Republicans here give a most cheerful view of the political situation in that State. All the members of Congress say there never was a time when the Republicans of Illinois seemed so earnest in their organization work. Letters are reported in many Democratic strongholds, and in one city a secret club is to be organized in a short time. It will change the order of things considerably. Many cities have already been organized, prominent of all the Wright who voted for Harrison in 1884, but who will vote for Fifer in 1888, but who will vote for Harrison in 1888. Such a club will serve a great political organization. The letters received from the Peoria, Rock Island, and Galesburg districts is most encouraging. It does not appear that Judge Fifer will carry any county originally in the Rock Island district, where Mr. Cannon has already been selected for the Democratic organization. Gen. Post's withdrawal from the Peoria district does not appear to be a serious loss to the Republicans

Interesting Reminiscences of the Political Campaign for Supervisor and Other Town & Judicial Tickets in 1858 Between Democrats and Anti-Lords of the Town Who Are Proud of This Fact's Opportunities.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 9.—[Editor of The Tribune.] The letter of the article quoted herein the campaign of 1858 and has a distinct recollection of the leading events of that period. I lived on the Chicago River at the time, about fifty miles above Chicago, on the Ohio side. The political excitement of 1858 was a surprise to every one. The campaign of 1856, in which Harrison was the Whig candidate, created little or no excitement. The most of settlements were not organized by any attempt at township or taking township Harrison, who was universally respected, but because the men were in favor of Buchanan. Harrison was in fact never in any sense a political candidate. David Wilmot was the Whig candidate of the Eastern States and Hugh L. White of the Southern States was the candidate of the Whigs of the Western States, while Harrison's support was almost exclusively in the West. Every one knows that Whigs fought like devils to win that battle. The Whigs fought like devils to win that battle. The Whigs fought like devils to win that battle. The Whigs fought like devils to win that battle.

The first general rally was at Crawford, [illegible] which was a surprise to the Whigs engaged in it, and gave rights and courage to the Democracy all over the State. Early in the spring a grand rally was announced at Springfield, a number of old statesmen of the earlier days promising material help. The writer spent many evening hours with Judge Logan, who was then in the Duke of Kane, in the matter of [illegible] Chase, which a statement of which was published in the Chicago Times. Judge Logan was one of the managing committee of the Democratic party, and was active in the campaign of 1858. He was present at the meeting of the committee, and was present at the meeting of the committee. He was present at the meeting of the committee, and was present at the meeting of the committee. He was present at the meeting of the committee, and was present at the meeting of the committee.

[illegible] was the Democratic State ticket, which was not an elegant exhibition, but was the best of available material under the circumstances. The Democratic State ticket was elected by a majority of [illegible] votes. The writer was [illegible] and was elected by a majority of [illegible] votes. CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTIONS.

Democratic Record of a Shameless Bargainer in Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—The old Whigs living in Wisconsin County who voted for Harrison in 1840 and 1844 are now numerous. Some of them voted for John Quincy Adams and all the Whig and Republican candidates up to the present, and will cast their ballots for Harrison and Morton with the exception of perhaps two or three. Following is a list of those reported up to date:

[illegible]

Hon. Timothy Carpenter, of Racine Township, Racine County, Wis., voted for Harrison in 1840 and 1844, and for Clay in 1844 and 1848.

A Delta citizen of Portland Township cast his first vote in 1836 for John Quincy Adams for President, his last subject to party and was elected to the Legislature. County Convention.

Mr. S. P. Lloyd, of Mount Pleasant Township, who cast his first vote for John Quincy Adams in 1836, for he an active and prominent citizen. He has always been a Whig, and of late years a Republican, and will vote for Harrison and Morton.

Excepting a few of the surviving members of this city, who voted for Van Buren in 1840:

[illegible]

Hon. Timothy Burns, ex-Mayor, General Quarrels, and W. P. Clark, residents and property-holders of this city, and staunch in the Democratic party, voted for Harrison in 1840.

C. P. Smith, born in 1811, in the oldest resident of La Crosse who voted for Harrison in 1840. Every man in the city, or for a mile around, voted for Harrison. Every man, young and old, took an active part in the presidential campaign.

The list of old Whigs who voted for W. H. Harrison comprises the majority of representative men in this city for many years a source of pride.
